In Re: Case Assignment in Cases
Involving Elections

STANDING ORDER No. DLC-19

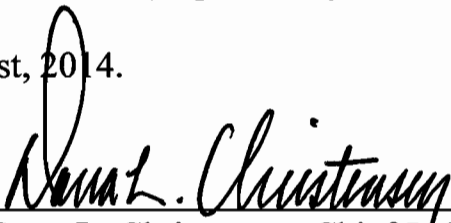

Pursuant to D. Mont. L.R. 1.2(a), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. Paragraph 1 of Standing Order No. DLC-15 is AMENDED to read:

1) Assignment of Cases Relating to Certain Voting or Electoral Matters: Regardless of the Division of filing, each civil case falling within CM/ECF Nature of Suit Codes 400 (state reapportionment), 441 (voting rights), and 950 (constitutional challenges to state statutes) will be reviewed to determine whether the case involves reapportionment, voting rights, campaign finance or disclosure laws, or otherwise relates to elections. If, in the opinion of the Chief Judge, the case is fairly so described, it will be assigned by random draw from among the following judicial officers: Chief Judge Dana L. Christensen, District Judge Brian M. Morris, District Judge Susan P. Watters, Senior District Judge Charles C. Lovell, Senior District Judge Donald W. Molloy, Senior District Judge Sam E. Haddon, Magistrate Judge Carolyn S. Ostby, Magistrate Judge Jeremiah C. Lynch, and Magistrate Judge Keith Strong.

2. This Order shall be effective immediately upon filing.

DATED this 22nd day of August, 2014.

Dana L. Christensen, Chief Judge
United States District Court
